Description

Megan Barrows has retired from a brief career as a ghostbusting psychic and now uses her sixth sense to fill her Seattle antiques store with objects with happy pasts. After once nearly having the soul sucked out of her by a malevolent spirit, she prefers a quiet life. Case Lambert is a real estate prospector who restores old houses, then sells them for profit. He has just bought a dilapidated mansion so amazing that he wants to keep it for himself, but the house appears to be haunted. "Seriously" haunted. A few inquiries lead him to Megan Barrows.

Megan at first refuses to help, but Case is a master of persuasion. Moving into the mansion, they discover that one of the ghosts has a thing for Case -- and there may be even more amorous spirits inside this veritable paranormal vortex. But it soon becomes clear that no one -- dead or alive -- can stop Megan and Case from ending up in each other's arms. . . .

Insightful reviews

Doris: I really liked it until it got to the sex scenes. Then it went downhill...

Michelle B: A delightful book by a new author for me. It has the paranormal aspects to it and romance as well and is quite funny. It was a cute fun read and a nice break from the normal books that i've been reading. I would read more from this author in the future.

Scarlett: More paranormal mystery than love story. A smart book and even creepy at times. But the romance did fall a little flat for me.

Dana: A Babe in Ghostland is a enjoyable little haunted apartment romance. There's not anything I quite enjoyed or hated approximately this book. The characters and the romance have been adequate. The plot moved alongside quickly sufficient to carry my interest. while you're searching for a lighter paranormal romance you'll like this.

Emily: it is a strong ghost mystery, with a touch of romance. it might be stable to learn in among series.

Angela: Who ya gonna call? This ghostbuster. strong book. Romance at the facet with a superb lookin man.
