Description

USAF Lieutenant Samantha Spade and her techies try out the latest gizmos for the military. On a test run with the Ergonomic Exoskeletal Extension (EEEEK), Sam stumbles over two dead bodies in the desert. With the help of handsome Border Patrol Agent Jeff Mitchell, Sam must unravel a cover-up involving an illegal arms deal.

Insightful reviews

Dara: This book is a little different from her other books. I felt like I was reading a Stephanie Plum book by Janet Evanovich, except with a lot of military jargon. It's not a straight romance book at all but a mystery of sorts. I don't know how you could describe it. It's not really a romantic suspense but more like a science fiction mystery. If you can get past the first person narration it's not a bad read.

Allisyn: A mystery novel written by one of my old favorite romance authors. The book was set in a military funded research station with a mixed team of military and civilian. The military head of the team Lt. Samantha Spade finds a pair of bodies on a jog out testing some equipment and gets drawn into a giant jurisdictional battle which she seems to think she needs to be in the middle of. After an arsonist targets her lab, she makes finding the murderer a personal goal despite having no jurisdiction herself. All in all, I think that I'll stick to reading her romance novels which generally contain a suspense element but seem to be better developed and make more sense logically.

Mary: I really enjoyed this book but I tend to like most of Ms. Lovelace's books. This one is a little different from her romantic suspense books and is the first in a trilogy. It is basically a murder mystery with a hint of romance.

Samantha Spade is a fun character with lots of great dialog and lots of talking to herself. I like her wry sense of humor and her ability to laugh at herself. She meets Jeff 'Mitch' Mitchell on a bad day but these two click almost right away. I look forward to the continuation of their relationship in the next book.

I would recommend this book and most others written by Merline Lovelace.

Hmr28: I enjoyed this series. the entire alphabet soup factor (acronyms within the military) was once so humorous (and so true). nice concept, nice romance and that i enjoyed the mystery. I rec. this to all my interpreting friends. i'm hoping the sequence continues.

Alice Brown: i like those books. they seem to be a mild learn and that i love the characters. i admire how Samantha's brain works. They make me snort out loud.

Gwen: I loved the most character's discussion and humor. a simple learn yet fun. i'm awaiting analyzing the following within the series.
