Description

Undercover cop Dan "Spider" Shepherd knows there are no easy solutions in the war against terrorism. When a killer starts to target pardoned IRA terrorists, Shepherd must put his life on the line to protect his former enemies. While he is undercover in Belfast, a grief-stricken Saudi whose two sons died under torture in the name of the War on Terror is planning to avenge their deaths by striking out at two people close to Shepherd. As the assassin closes in on his prey, Shepherd realizes that the only way to save lives is to become a killer himself.

Insightful reviews

George: One of these books that someone passes you at work....bit far fetched at times ....a lot of bullet dodging stuff

Anne Viner: Great!

Geoff Woodland: Well plotted – enjoyable story that built up to the climax – stayed awake to too long as I wanted to know the ending - Mr Leather never fails to produce the goods

Ray: a very good mystery. should be including extra of Stephen Leather's books to my interpreting record within the future.

Linda: completely loved my first flavor of this author, i glance ahead to studying extra of Dan 'Spider' Shepherd within the future!

Allan Batchelor: used to be okay yet not so good as a few within the sequence
