J.D. White: 2 Timothy 3:16-17

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

Hebrews 4:12

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Kim: "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer, share with God's people who are in need. Practice hospitality."

Romans 12:12-13

Rachel Anne: Did you know most (if not all) serial killers come from religious families?

Also, that this book consists of incest, bestiality, sexism, racism, and polygamy?

Then goes and says "love one another"?

This book repeatedly contradicts itself to the point of it being comical and repeatedly insults the intelligence of the reader. The characters were shoddy, I couldn't follow the plot, and the man character was so far-fetched I couldn't believe a word of it.

Considering this was written over 100 years after Jesus died, it's no wonder.

Cody: (view spoiler)[The Bible IS amazing. it's jam-packed with 'impossible' prophecies just like the urban of Tyre being destroyed and (if I take into account correctly) it had recorded in it, info at the Assyrian Empire lengthy ahead of we even came upon ruins from Assyria. I locate the prophecy on Tyre the main interesting one (Ezekiel 26:3-21) the place it says:"...therefore this can be what the Sovereign Lord says: i'm opposed to you, Tyre, and that i will carry many countries opposed to you, just like the sea casting up its waves. they are going to spoil the partitions of Tyre and pull down her towers; i'm going to scrape away her rubble and make her a naked rock. Out within the sea she's going to turn into a spot to unfold fishing nets, for i've got spoken...and her settlements at the mainland might be ravaged by way of the sword...from the north i will carry opposed to Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon...He will ravage your settlements at the mainland with the sword; he'll manage siege works opposed to you... they are going to plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise...and throw your stones, trees and rubble into the sea...I will make you a naked rock, and you'll turn into a spot to unfold fishing nets and you'll be equipped no more!" What really happened? Why do not you learn up on it...King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon got here and destroyed the mainland urban of Tyre! in spite of the fact that he was once not able to successfully assault the island city. So he laid a thirteen yr siege, forcing the island urban of Tyre to just accept Babylonian rule, however the urban remained intact!The prophesy says that many countries not only Babylon might upward push opposed to Tyre because the publication Exploring construction in most cases technology says: "The Prophesy in Ezekiel states that Nebuchadnezzar will wreck the mainland city, however it says that 'they' will throw stones and timbers into the sea. In utilizing the pronoun 'they' rather than 'he,' the prophesy makes the excellence among Nebuchadnezzar and the others that would stand opposed to Tyre. Thus, the pronoun 'they' doesn't confer with Nebuchadnezzar; it refers back to the different leaders who will try and smash Tyre. As historical past tells us, different leaders did indeed, march opposed to Tyre." (Exploring production ordinarily Science) It is going directly to say: "In 333 B.C., Alexander the nice demanded that Tyre permit him to occupy the Island City. The King of Tyre, Azemilicus, used to be keen to provide Alexander dominion over Tyre, yet used to be unwilling to permit him and his military occupy the city. Alexander was once hence pressured to assault Tyre that allows you to achieve complete keep an eye on over her strategic location. in keeping with Encyclopedia Britannica Alexander had no fleet with which to assault the Island urban of Tyre, so he thoroughly destroyed the mainland urban and dumped all its particles into the ocean. there has been lots particles that Alexander used to be in a position to build a large bridge of particles from the mainland urban to the Island City, making it attainable for his military to march shut adequate to Tyre to construct siege engines (like catapults) and assault the city." It's particularly awesome how good what really occurred matched up with what Ezekiel prophesied within the Bible back quoting from Exploring construction regularly technology Ezekiel additionally anticipated that many countries may march opposed to Tyre, and that is precisely what happened. After Alexander the Great's conquest, the Seleucidae, the Romans, the Moslems, and the Crusaders all took turns conquering Tyre. in spite of everything this fighting, Tyre lay in ruins. Today, outdated Tyre is, indeed, scraped all the way down to naked rock. in response to historian Nina Jidejian, 'The Port [of Tyre] has turn into a haven at the present time for fishing boats and a spot for spreading nets' (Tyre throughout the Ages, Nina Jidejian, El-Mashreq Publishers: Beirut, 1969, p. 139, emphasis added)." Wow! What an awesome prediction, it truly is striking that we've got such an amazing all strong God on our side!. (hide spoiler)]I were analyzing books referred to as upward thrust of the Fallen and Cloak of the sunshine via Chuck Black, they're concerning the struggle among Angels and Demons instructed in a fiction/factual way, they're quite nice and so they have given me much to contemplate as I learn throughout the bible.I came upon numerous nice verses which are rather attention-grabbing after have learn via those books and the Bible: "For we don't strive against opposed to flesh and blood, yet opposed to principalities, opposed to powers, opposed to the rulers of the darkness of this age, opposed to religious hosts of wickedness within the heavenly places." (Ephesians 6:21)"...an angel of the Lord looked as if it would Joseph in a dream, saying, 'Arise, take the younger baby and His mother, flee to Egypt, and remain there till I carry you word; for Herod will search the younger baby to ruin Him.'" (Matt 2:13) My favorite Bible Characters:JesusLukeJohnTimothyJoshuaDescription: A real ebook telling you every little thing that's of absolute significance to humanity, how we should always live, what's deliberate for our destiny etc. in addition to an intensive historical past of the kingdom of Israel and the world.Author Description: God encouraged the Bible to be written and it's not written by means of anybody man. God is the writer of all issues residing and dead, and he controls the universe. He has in spite of the fact that given guy his personal unfastened selection and to be frank we messed it up substantial time. an international that used to be excellent has turn into corrupt.

began to consider a closeness with the Lord in these readings.

Ayanna: I wasn't going to check the Bible. I wasn't ever going to study the Bible. For one thing, it is a very politically charged circulation to make. For another, i have most likely merely technically learn probably under 10% of the complete thing. a number of verses right here and there and the full ebook of Esther doesn't a accomplished interpreting make. But today, somebody approached me to inform me the message of God the Mother, whose proof of lifestyles is within the incontrovertible fact that God refers to "us" in Genesis, growing God in "our" image, developing female and male from "our image." This, she says, exhibits facts of God the Mother; it's a fallacy to think girl shape may perhaps come from a male trinity. Great. That seems like a beautiful good idea, and is adequately counter-patriarchal culture to maintain me for a moment. That's now not the purpose i am right here to address, though. She stated anything approximately how she will be able to see why i would become averse to spiritual institutions, provided that there are XX denominations available in the market (I do not be mindful the precise number) and that every has their very own dogmatic approach. She says whatever approximately how there's a yes truth, though, and lot of associations make the error of introducing their evaluations to the textual content - resembling the belief of the Father, Son, Holy Spirit trinity being the "us" referred to. it really is this kind of fallacy that drives me clear of equipped religion. Even the gang that turns out a piece extra liberal than others nonetheless persists within the "our thought is correct" idea. Sure, they do not body it that way; they body it in a "we're taking a formalist method of this text, and are hence unfastened from bias" type of way. She asked/explained the concept that there's one yes Truth, right, and how you discover it really is during the text. The challenge is my cognition is essentially extra post-modern than that. I defined my perspectives at the fallacy of the belief of a distinct truth, going as far as to demonstrate my aspect by means of going into the history of the seeing is believing fallacy - our shift from essentially auditory processing to visible - and that in spite of photographic evidence, we fail to take into account the photographer's bias in taking the shot. i may see i might left her confused, baffled by way of the concept i'd no longer imagine fact exists. Religion itself is a fascinating thing. In a different departure from the God the mum concept, she now starts to attempt to introduce religion. At one point, she requested a rhetorical query approximately why humans flip to religion. "So they've got a few type of experience of self-comfort regardless of what good judgment or their senses could inform them," I say in my brain as she answers, "So they could have everlasting life." it is not a nasty idea. If the concept there is a few higher function available in the market is what you need, then opt for it. yet i am sorry. i have grown too post-modern to paintings that simplistic experience of convenience into my existential psyche. She reintroduces the God the mum idea, does an ungainly (for me, anyways) pedantic bit approximately how it truly is evidenced in nature, how every little thing is birthed via either a father and a mother. She asks if i would ever return to church, learn the Bible, understanding this new "God the Mother" idea that I do now. I say no, most likely not. My factor with faith is not with the patriarchal emphasis of it. Sure, that contributes, yet my lack of ability to think utterly in a God of any variety is extra my lack of ability to make that jump of faith. and i am the type who cannot make myself fake i think in anything i do know I don't. I nonetheless say i am agnostic simply because there evidently are forces past our comprehension, and perhaps philosophically speaking, it is all correct to consult these forces jointly as "God." yet even if there is a wide awake will to those forces past our comprehension? probably the need is past our comprehension, as Christians may say concerning the inscrutability of God. yet then, is Nature being malevolent while it enacts an earthquake? Is it punishing us for something? Or is it only a force: action, reaction? This delves into nation-states on which I have never adequate information, and thus, no opinion. and that is why I've got such concerns with the God concept. Sure, it truly is nice to personify those collective forces, yet as an inventive gesture. yet then, if adequate humans think something over another, does that then make it true? What if everybody in the world basically knew the idea that of God as a unsleeping entity? Then that will be the truth, whether in a truth faraway from comprehension, there isn't any will. and I have gotten clear of myself a section here, yet I develop uncomfortable with dogma. I may by no means reside in an international of chilly logic, however the presumptuousness of faith does supply me pause. might be I am extra suited for a degree of spirituality than real religion, consistent with se. On an extra flippant note, why is it I regularly prove getting roped in by means of the non secular ppl for his or her non secular 'splainin'? what's it approximately me that screams, "Preach to me!!!"? Jfc, possibly subsequent time I should still simply inform them sorry, I am a religious Satanist, and stroll away.
