Description

Don't miss A to Z Mysteries--alphabetic adventures that are full of thrills, chills, and cases to crack!

K is for Kidnapped...

In the eleventh book of the A to Z Mysteries--an early chapter book mystery series featuring strong boy and girl characters--the king and queen of Costra have been kidnapped! For his protection, the prince is sent to Green Lawn - to hide out with Dink's family. Dink, Josh, and Ruth Rose promise to help their royal friend rescue his parents from the enemies of the crown. But then the prince is captured, too! Can the three sleuths catch the kidnappers and unravel this royal mystery?

Each book includes a map and a letter from the author. Parents, teachers, and librarians agree that these highly collectible chapter books are perfect for emerging readers and any kid who love mysteries!

From the Trade Paperback edition.

Insightful reviews

Cathy: Easy reader with pictures - 2nd grade reading level. Cute simplistic plot with likeable characters that kids will identify with.

Tara: spoilers

I liked it when Josh, Dink, and Ruth Rose found out that Sammi was a prince. But they got sad when they found out that Sammi's mom and dad got kidnapped. At the end, they were okay.

Kerry A. Stead: Interesting

I read this book and thought it was very interesting! I can not wait to read the Lucky Lottery! Thank you Ron Roy!

Sandra Pedicini: now not really memorable from a parent's perspective, however the A to Z mysteries aren't a foul sequence either. the tale strains are just a little clever, even though it does not take a genius to determine the mysteries, yet it really is most likely on the subject of the ideal point for the age crew it really is aimed at. stable for children to learn on their own.

Trisha: we're slowly making our means during the sequence on our 1 hour force (one way) to camp each one day! those are only nice to proportion as audio books.

Caleb: I loved it
