Jennifer: I love this Bible. It has great comments and supports and explanations. It clearly links sections of the Bible together which helps me to have a clearer picture.

Luke Brown: This was the Study Bible I went through in 2012. I have always enjoyed many of MacArthur's books but we don't agree on some areas, such as the sacraments or the end times. It is amazing how many times he can bring those up, especially the end times. When I want to study those in more depth and get an idea of different opinions, I will come back to this. Meanwhile, it grew frustrating and I skimmed over the footnotes pretty quickly, especially in Revelation. I did enjoy much of the New King James translation.

Stacy: This is probably THE BEST study Bible out there! I got it for Christmas, and can't stop reading it! If you want a study Bible that explains things in a literal, historical, gramatical way, get this Bible! There are a lot of more liberal Bibles out there, but this is not one of them! :-)

I completely suggest this to everyone.
