chucklesthescot: I read this because it was recommended for Stephen King fans and I was sooo let down by this! The writing was poor, the plot was slow and boring, the characters were obnoxious and unappealing and I was so bored that I dumped it after a handful of chapters. I didn't feel there was any suspense or tension and I was left wondering 'when is something interesting going to happen?'. Not one I'd recommend.

Trudi: have not learn early John Saul considering that i used to be a teenager. cannot take note infrequently a specific thing except they scared me on the time and contributed to my love of horror. i will not think any of his books may have an identical influence on me now.
